

SPACE

If objects or people overlap in a painting, we sense space between them. If overlapping is combined with size differences, the sense of space is greatly increased.